Numb. 10928.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 4, to Saturday April 8, 1769.

St. James's, April 8.

THE following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Traders, and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Coventry, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Richard Glyn, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Traders, and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Coventry.

IMpreſſed with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude for the many invaluable Bleſſings, which, under Providence, are derived to us from your Majeſty's mild and prudent Adminiſtration, we moſt humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with this moſt unfeigned Atteſtation of our dutiful Regard to your ſacred Perſon, and ſincereſt Wiſhes for your Peace and Proſperity.

Under the fulleſt Conviction, from repeated Inſtances of your Majeſty's invariable Attachment to the true Intereſts of your People, and fixed Reſolution of preſerving all their Civil and Religious Rights inviolate, we cannot, without Horror, reflect on that Spirit of Diſcontent and Diſorder, which hath of late appeared among ſome of our miſguided Fellow-Subjects, who, intoxicated with the ſpecious Appearance and Cry of Liberty, have unhappily enliſted themſelves under the Banners of Licentiouſneſs.

With reſpect to the meer Inſtruments of our preſent Confuſions, we can only lament their Error; but for their Patrons, from whoſe Leſſons of Sedition they have been tempted to exhibit their Improvements in that deteſtable Science, even before the Gates of your Palace, notwithſtanding they may aſſume to themſelves the reſpectable Character of Supporters of the Bill of Rights, they will for ever be regarded, by the more ſober Part of your Majeſty's Subjects, as Enemies to Monarchy, and Subverters of all legal Government.

Whilſt therefore we diſclaim the leaſt Connection with ſuch pretended Guardians of the Conſtitution, but real Diſturbers of its Repoſe, permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready to ſacrifice every Thing that is dear to us in Defence of your Royal Perſon, and in Support of ſuch ſalutary Meaſures, as, under your Majeſty's Direction, may tend to reſtore the Publick Tranquillity.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentry, Freeholders, Heretors, and Clergy of the County of Lanark, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Rochford, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentry, Freeholders, Heretors, and Clergy of the County of Lanark.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of Peace, Gentry, Freeholders, Heretors, and Clergy of the County of Lanark, ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, and under the beſt Conſtitution of Government, we think ourſelves in a particular Manner called upon, at this Time, to renew our Declarations of Duty, Gratitude, and Affection to your Majeſty; and to expreſs our Abhorrence of that licentious and ſeditious Spirit, with which Numbers of your Majeſty's Subjects in and about the Capital are at preſent actuated, to the total Neglect of their own Induſtry, and to the Increaſe of general Debauchery and Riot; a Spirit rendering them unworthy of the Liberty they enjoy, and tending to involve the whole innocent and well-affected of your Majeſty's Subjects in the fatal Conſequences of Confuſion and Anarchy; a Spirit that has dared to violate the Reſpect due to Government and the Laws, by raiſing ſeditious Tumults in the Neighbourhood of your Majeſty's Reſidence, by traducing the Great Council of the Nation, and by endeavouring to infuſe into the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects an injurious Diſtruſt of the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, for which your Majeſty has ſo wiſely provided, by the Choice of Perſons diſtinguiſhed by their Integrity, their Capacity, and their Knowledge.

On ſuch an Occaſion we think ourſelves bound, not only to lay our Aſſurances of Duty and Fidelity at your Majeſty's Feet, but ſenſible, that, on the Preſervation of that Reſpect which is due to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, the Safety of our happy Conſtitution, and of all our Civil Rights, depend; we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever be prepared to ſupport the Authority veſted in your Majeſty and in the High Court of Parliament, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes. We conclude by beſeeching Almighty God, that He would long preſerve your Majeſty, and continue the invaluable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your moſt auſpicious Reign.

Done at Hamilton, this 28th of March, 1769.

The following Addreſs of the Sheriff and Grand-Jury of the County of Salop, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir John Aſhley, Bart. and Charles Baldwin, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Sheriff and Grand-Jury, aſſembled at the Lent Aſſizes for the County of Salop, in the Year 1769.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff and Grand-Jury, aſſembled at the Lent Aſſizes for the County of Salop, with Hearts full of Gratitude for your Majeſty's moſt mild and auſpicious Government, humbly beg Leave to declare our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of that mutinous and ſeditious Spirit, which hath of late manifeſted itſelf in ſeveral Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions, tending to deſtroy all Submiſſion to lawful Authority, and to introduce Anarchy and Confuſion.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our zealous and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family, and Government; of our Veneration for the eſtabliſhed Laws of the Land, under the Adminiſtration miniſtration of which by your ſacred Majeſty we enjoy the moſt perfect Liberty that any Nation can boaſt of; and that it ſhall be our utmoſt Endeavour, at the Hazard of our Lives and Properties, to ſupport the ſame, and to diſcourage all ſuch riotous and unlawful Proceedings, as tend to diſturb your Majeſty's Government, and render more burthenſome your tender and paternal Care of your People.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and City Council of Glaſgow has been preſented to His Majeſty by Lord Frederick Campbell, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Magiſtrates and City Council of Glaſgow, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty's Throne, penetrated with the livelieſt Senſe of our Duty to ſo gracious a Prince whoſe conſtant Study has been to aſſert the Rights and promote the Advantage of his Subjects, and to whom the Laws and Conſtitution of his Kingdom are the unvaried Rule of his Adminiſtration.

Happy as we are under ſo auſpicious and mild a Reign, we obſerve, with the greateſt Deteſtation, thoſe Attempts which have lately been made againſt the Public Welfare, by factious, deſigning, and wicked Perſons, who, under the falſe Pretence of Liberty, endeavour to miſrepreſent the Legiſlature, weaken your Majeſty's Influence, and ſow the Seeds of Diſcontent among your Subjects.

At ſuch a Juncture, we of this loyal Corporation think it incumbent on us, with the greateſt Humility, to expreſs our intire Confidence in your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Juſtice, which, we hope, will on this Occaſion be exerted, to maintain Regularity, and reſtore Submiſſion to the Laws in every Part of your Dominions; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, in our Sphere, to the utmoſt of our Power, aſſiſt in preſerving the Peace, Order, and Tranquility of Government, againſt all who ſhall attempt to diſturb or interrupt the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign. Signed in Preſence and by Appointment of the City Council.

Ja. Buchanan, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Dean of Guild, Merchants, and Traders of the City of Glaſgow, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Lord Frederick Campbell, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Dean of Guild, Merchants, and Traders of the City of Glaſgow.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and Traders of the City of Glaſgow, having the moſt grateful Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, cannot reſtrain ourſelves from taking this Occaſion of declaring our moſt ſincere and affectionate Regard to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Family, as well as our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Government, and the Britiſh Conſtitution as by Law eſtabliſhed.

It is with Regret that we have obſerved the Licentiouſneſs that hath appeared on many publick Occaſions, tending to interrupt the Peace and good Order of your Majeſty's Government, under the Cover and Name of Liberty; which tho' one of the beſt of Bleſſings, can only be maintained by a due Obſervance of, and Conformity to, the Laws of the Land; as by theſe, and theſe only, lawful Authority can be preſerved inviolate, and the Rights of the Subjects ſecured.

We do therefore, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, declare our entire Diſapprobation of every Attempt to raiſe or diffuſe a Spirit of Riot and Licentiouſneſs through the Kingdom, as tending to obſtruct Obedience to the Laws, and leſſen the Reſpect due to Majeſty; both which are abſolutely neceſſary to the Peace, Security, and Happineſs of Great Britain.

With the higheſt Gratitude we acknowledge, that, during your Majeſty's mild and equitable Reign, the Freedom of our moſt excellent Conſtitution hath been maintained, and Commerce protected and encouraged: May it pleaſe your Majeſty therefore, to accept of our warmeſt Wiſhes for the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Family and Government, and of our Reſolutions to ſupport both with our Lives and Fortunes.

St. James's, April 5, 1769.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That Hugh Roſs, Eſq; of the City of London, Merchant, was, on Wedneſday the 22d of March laſt, (when accompanying the Body of Merchants, Traders, and other Principal Inhabitants of the ſaid City, in order to attend His Majeſty with their humble Addreſs) ſtopt in his Carriage in St. James's-Street, between Bennet-Street and St. James's Palace, by a riotous Mob of People then aſſembled there; that one of them, a middle-ſized Man, dreſſed in light-coloured Cloaths, with a Leather Apron on, and a Hammer in his Hand, (appearing very much like a Carpenter) attacked the ſaid Mr. Roſs's Carriage, and, with his Hammer aforeſaid, broke the Doors and Wooden Blinds to Pieces, and then, without the leaſt Provocation whatever on the Part of the ſaid Mr. Roſs, (who is upwards of Seventy Years of Age) ſtruck him in the moſt cruel and inhuman Manner ſeveral violent Blows with the Hammer on his Leg, from his Knee to his Inſtep, notwithſtanding he had then already received three deſperate Wounds in his Face, by Brickbats and Stones, &c. which the Populace had thrown at him, which had alſo bruiſed and almoſt beat out one of his Eyes; and that the ſaid Mr. Roſs, from the Wounds and Bruiſes which he received in the ſhocking and inhuman Manner abovementioned, was for ſome Time in imminent Danger of his Life: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons principally concerned in the ſaid atrocious and inhuman Acts, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Perſon who ſhall diſcover the Man who attacked the ſaid Mr. Roſs's Carriage, and afterwards ſtruck him with a Hammer as aforeſaid; and likewiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid atrocious and inhuman Acts, (except the Man that actually ſtruck the ſaid Mr. Roſs with the Hammer, in the Manner abovementioned) who ſhall diſcover the ſaid Man, ſo that he may be apprehended and convicted thereof. The ſaid Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, upon the Conviction of the ſaid Offender

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a further Encouragement, the ſaid Hugh Roſs does hereby promiſe a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid; to be paid by him on the Conviction of the ſaid Offender.

Hugh Roſs.

Whitehall, April 8, 1769.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that in the Night between the 3d and 4th of this Inſtant April, a Bureau belonging to Mrs. Mary Compagnon, a Lodger in the Houſe of John Clarck, Taylor, in St. Martin's Court, in the Pariſh of St. Martin's in the Fields, was broke open, and the following Bank Notes ſtolen thereout, viz. N° H. 184. Thomas Wright, 24th Nov. 1768, for 200 l. N° K. 37, Daniel Roy, 19th Jan. 1769, for 100 l. N° K. 229, Charles Jewſon, 15th Dec. 1768, for 40 l. and 6 other Bank Notes, the Numbers of which are forgot, to the Amount of 225 l. and alſo One Hundred and Ninety-two Guineas in a Leathern Bag, bound with blue Ferret and ditto Strings; and it being apprehended that there was more than one Perſon concerned in the ſaid Robbery, His Majeſty for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned therein, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, except the Perſon who actually broke open the ſaid Bureau, who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

in

ROCHFORD.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the ſaid Mary Compagnon does hereby promiſe a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Perſon making the above Diſcovery (except as before excepted;) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders; and alſo a Reward of Ten per Cent. on ſuch Part of the Bank Notes and Caſh ſtolen as above, as may be reſtored to her. Mary Compagnon.
